Fenceline Run Makes Local Paper

Mr V. and the grammar classes are making news! Kelly Cox of The Post Independent showed up and caught it all on camera. Great Job Mr. V and all grammar students!

Hotel Colorado Tree Lighting.

Our School has been asked to sing at the Tree Lighting Festival at the Hotel Colorado this year. This is a high honor for us to be asked to be involved in this ceremony.

Piano Lessons

Miss Sheilds, one of our music instructors, is teaching personal piano lessons. If you would like to either learn the piano yourself, or have your child(ren) take lessons, please contact Miss Sheilds at 864-430-2570.

Thanksgiving Luncheon

Our annual Thanksgiving Luncheon will be Nov 24th from 11:30am till 2pm at the New Castle Community Center. School will let out at 11am and the program will begin at 11:30 sharp.

Here is the breakdown of whose class brings what:

Wood-Bread or rolls, butter
 Bleakely-Salad or appetizers

Smith-Fruit or cranberries
 Mrs. Jabbour-Cooked Veggies

Cappelli-Potatoes
 Logic 2-Sweet Potatoes

Logic 1-Stuffing
 Rhetoric - Dessert

Please make enough to feed 12 people.

We need families to come early to help setup, and then tear down after the event. Call Jo Morley in the office to let her know what time you can help. 984 - 0604

Please be sure to label your dishes and utensils.

Please pick your child up at 11 am

Karate

Karate is Wednesday from 2-3pm. We still have room. Each student has been given a ticket for a free lesson. This will benefit your student in the area's of physical fitness, discipline, and maintaining a positive attitude in life. Here is a picture of the last "belt-test". Several Garden School students have already tested for their first belt! Great job!

Narnia

This year's annual play production is "Narnia". Mark your calendars for Feb 19,20,21. Our venue will be the GWS High School Auditorium again this year. If you know of local businesses that would be willing to sponsor the play this year, please contact Ken Reeder with their information.

Narnia Costumes

Mrs. Bolitho will be giving out costume information at the Thanksgiving Luncheon.

We work very hard to make sure that all costumes are inexpensive and affordable. With current economic issues, we will be working even harder to make sure that all costumes fit within budget constraints. We have a well stocked costume closet. If you cannot find what you are looking for in your closet, there is a chance that we will have what you are looking for hiding somewhere in ours.
